Activities Department of the Year

Purpose: To recognize excellence in the delivery of activities services to the elderly population as an Activities Team. The respective department displays how a group of activity professionals work together to enhance the quality of life for the individuals meeting their needs and interests in a Person Centered environment.

Administrator of the Year

Purpose: To recognize excellence and support of the Administrator in their respective facilities. The Administrator should be actively involved in the quality of life in their facility as well as demonstrate a Person Centered environment.

State Association of the Year

Purpose: To recognize Activities State Associations who have encouraged and supported their membership to obtain their highest level of professionalism. A State Association that encourages NCCAP certification and displays support for their members.

Web Site of the Year

Purpose: To recognize that technology assists the Activity Professional in the delivery of activities services to those individuals in their respective facilities. State Association and Activity web sites are eligible for this recognition.

MEPAP Instructor of the Year

Purpose: To recognize excellence in the delivery of education for those individuals seeking NCCAP Certification. Instructors who maintain a high level of education for those who are seeking to complete their journey to become Activity Professionals.

NCCAP Supporter of the Year

Purpose: To recognize companies who support the principles and goals of NCCAP. Their dedication to the activities profession by supplying education, resources, materials and equipment that enhance the delivery of activities services to individuals in long-term care. They also provide opportunities for activity professionals to contribute to the profession.

NCCAP Spirit Award

Purpose: To recognize those individuals or groups that are not directly working in the field of activities, but display their “spirit” of meeting the individual needs of residents/participants within the realm of delivering activities services. These individuals and/or groups provide quality of life experiences.
