Dear Friends of NCCAP,

I am pleased to share with you our Call for Speakers and invite you to apply to present important and innovative educational topics applicable to the Activity Profession. Our 2018 Symposium will occur from June 21-23, 2018 in our hometown of Virginia Beach, Virginia.

This annual gathering targets up to several hundred NCCAP-certified members and instructors as well as leaders in the broader community of professionals and consultants providing therapeutic interventions to the aging population.

Your knowledge and presence are a great resource for our members and attendees. We ask you to apply by providing the requested information so our Education Committee can ensure that your educational content meets NCCAP's Continuing Education (CE) requirements.

We look forward to welcoming you to our 2018 Symposium. Please contact me with any questions or clarifications.
